Accuracy by model: mean of the three replicates

Custom code | Galaxy | Replicate | ± 1 SD

Each replicate is one run of every task; bars give the mean of the three replicate accuracies (equal to the pooled accuracy, because every replicate covers every task), dots each replicate, and whiskers ± 1 standard deviation across replicates. IWC runs count as correct at ≥ 0.99 output agreement.

